Leeds Castle Learning My History

History is not just about people that lived a long time ago and events that happened centuries ago. Yesterday is history too. It is gone and we will never live through it again! Our family history is our story. Who our ancestors were makes us who we are today.

This worksheet is for you to record your family history. In years to come, if you have children of your own in the future, they will want to know where they come from. This is your opportunity to explore your family and have fun while learning it!

Genealogy is a big word that means the study of families, family history and tracing where you come from.

This workbook is not just an activity, it is also a record for you to keep, and add to. Start with who you are.

My name is
I was born on years old
My mother is She was born on
My father is He was born on
Now list your siblings (brothers and sisters) and their dates of birth

Do you think you look more like your mum or your dad, or someone else in your family?
• • • • • • • • • • • • • • • • • • • •
Think about the things you like doing and write them here:
Who else in your family likes doing the same things as you?
• • • • • • • • • • • • • • • • • • • •
What types of food do you like to eat? Who else in your family likes the same sort of foods as you?
• • • • • • • • • • • • • • • • • • • •

Now let's look at how much you know about your extended family!

Who are your mother's parents and how old are they?
• • • • • • • • • • • • • • • • • • • •
Does your mum have brothers and sisters (your aunts and uncles)? If so write their names here:

An acrostic is a poem in which the first letter of each line spells out a word or message. Choose a word that is related to the family and write your own acrostic. There is an example below using the word family, but you should choose a different word.

Fiercely loyal to those we love

Accepting of us all

Mother who loves unconditionally

Inspiring

Love, laughter and loyalty

Young and old together

Here are some suggestions for words you could use. Your poem can be happy, sad or funny!

Mother - Father - Brother - Sister - Parents - Grandma - Grandpa

Use the space below to create your acrostic.

The study of our family history usually includes a family tree. We use a tree to record the lineage because just as a tree grows from the roots, and spreads up and out, so too do families. Here is your chance to create your family tree.

Great grandmother Great grandfather	Great grandmother Great grandfather
Grandmother	Grandmother
Mother	Father
Grandfather Me	Grandfather

Do you know what all the words in the list mean? If not, use a dictionary to look them up.

Use the box below to to paste a photo of your family, or draw a picture of them:

As part of your family research, talk to your parents, grandparents, aunts and uncles about them. What was it like growing up for them? What do they remember about their childhood? Do they still like doing things they did as a child? What memories do they have of their grandparents? What jobs do they have? Did they visit Leeds Castle when they were children? If so, what has changed since then? What funny stories can they tell you? Finally, add a paragraph about what you hope for your own future in 20 years time. What job would you like to do? Will you get married? Have children? What will the world be like?
